

Policy

This App is designed for a rent car enterprise, for it's needs. The company provides to employees unique passwords and usernames, that they can sign in the application and create application forms for their professional use.

The application form contains data of client needed for the contract. This data is given by the user – employee, while talking with client. The data is inserted by typing, without retrieve any data from the mobile device. The client is informed about data usage, and after that he signs twice for sending the data in company's system, for the contract usage.

The application, retrieve data only given by the user, or the data stored by the user in application.

The data is transferred safely, through SSL/TLS protocol. The client receives after a while, the contract from the company, and the data is stored according GDPR and client can ask about data collection in company's employees and ask delete status. Company keeps data, until the contract details interest expires.